

CULTURAMA GAME SHOW

1. TITLE/GAMEBOARD

- Make a Sign/Big Poster that displays the show's title
- Design/Create your selection board
- SEE BELOW FOR MORE DETAILS/IDEAS
- Create anything else you want to advertise your game
- flags, pictures, posters, etc...

2. SETUP

- Where do people line up?
- How many contestants play at once?
- Where do contestants play/stand/sit?
- Where is the host?

3. RULES

- How are the questions selected/sorted
 - a) by category? (Are You Smarter than a Canadian Sixth Grader?)
 - b) by point/$$$ value? (Canadian Jeopardy)
 - c) by difficulty (Who Wants to be a Canadian Millionaire?)
- What type of "life lines" do you have (have 2 to pick from)
- Ask a friend, 50/50, Copy, Peek, Next Question, 2nd Chance, etc...
- Do you need other rules?
- Time Limit? Cheaters? Others???

4. PRIZES

- How do contestants win prizes? (3 stages towards better prizes)
- What do they win? (pins, stickers, tattoos, flags, Tim Hortons?)

THE GAME SHOWS!

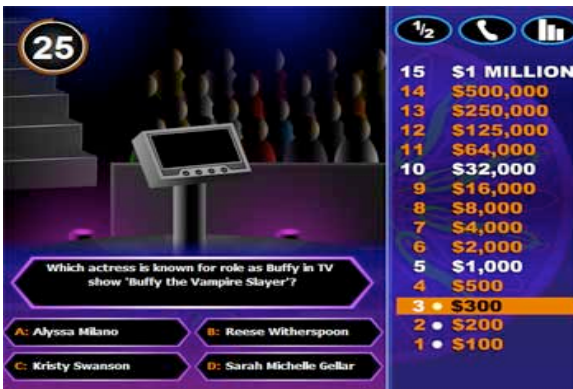

Use these pictures to help you design the look/staging/setup of your game show.

Are You Smarter Than A Canadian 6th Grader?

- 1 contestant - 1 host - 1 helper
- The questions are sorted into categories
- This show builds toward a major prize, but...
- It has 2 smaller prize pit-stops
- Contestants should need to answer about 6 questions to win...

Who Wants to be a Canadian Millionaire?

- 1 contestant - 1 host
- The questions are sorted by difficulty and get harder as you go.
- It builds toward a major prize, but,
- It has 2 smaller prize pit-stops
- Contestants should need to answer about 6 questions to win...

Canadian Jeopardy!

- 3 contestants - 1 host
- The questions are sorted into categories and by difficulty
- Contestants compete against each other
- Ends with a final Jeopardy
- 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes
- Try using 5 categories/3 questions per for each game + final Jeopardy!